V. RESOLUTIONS

Regent Clare presented the following resolution during the morning committee sessions:

WHEREAS, the University of Nebraska, under the leadership of Chancellor Clifford Hardin, played a pivotal role in establishing Ataturk University in 1957 as the first land-grant university in Turkey; and,

WHEREAS, numerous dedicated faculty and students at both institutions worked in collaboration to develop departments of excellence at the new institution in Erzurum; and

WHEREAS, the University of Nebraska and Ataturk University have continued their partnership for more than 55 years during which time Ataturk University has become a hub of educational and cultural excellence and has contributed significantly to strong economic and social growth in Turkey; and

WHEREAS, in 2012 both universities reaffirmed their commitment to working together to build the knowledge and innovation required to address some of the great challenges of the 21st century; and

WHEREAS, that commitment will be fulfilled through expanded faculty collaborations focused on mutual goals, research partnerships that leverage the institutions’ strengths in agriculture, education, public health, engineering and other areas, and mutually beneficial student exchanges;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the University of Nebraska Board of Regents extends its warmest welcome to our guests representing Ataturk University, including Professor Dr. Hikmet Kocak, Rector, and his distinguished academic colleagues and pledges its continued friendship, partnership and collaboration as we work together to address global challenges.
